THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds, and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the abolishment of useless offices, of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government and the currency made sound; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into National forces in time of peace; a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7. Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from offices, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claim of power to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledges of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and now confronts Southern States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the amount of debt created during the war.

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sales of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

NOTICE

IS hereby given, that in pursuance of an order from T. J. Latham, Register in Bankruptcy for the Western District of Tennessee, there will be a second general meeting of the creditors of W. H. ORGANIZING CIVIL WAR.

The following is a section of a bill which has passed the Senate, and is now before the House of Representatives:

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby authorized and required to deliver to the Governor of each State represented in the Congress of the United States, at the seat of government of such State, as many serviceable Springfield rifled muskets, of caliber fifty-eight, with accoutrements and equipments complete, as the Governor of such State shall require for the use of the militia therein, not exceeding the number hereinafter specified for each State, namely: Maine, five thousand; New Hampshire, three thousand; Vermont, three thousand; Massachusetts, ten thousand; Rhode Island, two thousand; Connecticut, four thousand; New York, thirty-one thousand; New Jersey, five thousand; Pennsylvania, twenty-four thousand; Delaware, one thousand; Maryland, five thousand; West Virginia, three thousand; Ohio, nineteen thousand; Indiana, eleven thousand; Illinois, fifteen thousand; Michigan, six thousand; Wisconsin, six thousand; Iowa, six thousand; Minnesota, two thousand; Kansas, one thousand; Nebraska, one thousand; Nevada, one thousand; California, three thousand; Oregon, one thousand; Kentucky, nine thousand; Tennessee, eight thousand; North Carolina, seven thousand; South Carolina, four thousand; Georgia, eight thousand; Florida, one thousand; Alabama, six thousand; Arkansas, three thousand; and Louisiana, five thousand; and the same shall be delivered only upon the certificate of the Governor of such State, showing to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War that the regiments and companies for which the same are required are duly organized of loyal citizens of such State, under the laws thereof; and said muskets, accoutrements, and equipments shall remain the property of the United States, subject to the control of Congress.

"Duly organized of loyal citizens of such State, under the laws thereof." What is the purpose of thus providing for putting an army of Radicals and negroes in the field, all over the Union? The National Intelligencer replies that it is "to levy war against the United States, in case General Grant is defeated at the polls."

And it goes on to say:

Contingency is the soul of successful planning. A project is never practicable which is not calculated to work several successive or different consummations. The ulterior object being the preservation for a few months, and then the perpetuation of power, the election of Grant and of a despotic majority in the House is the proposed end. The usual agencies of a Radical canvass are to be supplemented by the powerful and daring resort to intimidation of the polls by bayonets. This provisional army, wherever it may dare, as in the South, and perhaps elsewhere, is to operate to overbear the public will, and coerce a result nominally in favor of the revolutionists. But if all should fail, and the irresponsible indignation of the people find conclusive utterance against this detestable faction, the provisional army will be already a nucleus of determined, trained and desperate traitors, through whom an unprepared nation of freemen may be struck down, and a rejected aspirant for their favor placed with his boot on their necks and his sword at their throats. Two hundred and eighteen thousand men! What usurper in history ever needed so many? With less than these Cæsar hung Rome as a bauble to the hilt of his sword; with less than these the meanest of his kitchen scullions could depose the Emperor of Russia; and with less than these any English general could demolish in a day the hoary splendors of the British realm.

It is possible that a body of men, chosen and sworn to perform the duties of legislation, might by degrees so exaggerate and pervert their powers and practices as to turn themselves gradually into a revolutionary convention of traitors, subject to conviction under the constitution and laws of treason. Is the question not worthy the earnest reflection of conscientious members of these Houses, at what particular stage of perversion the unlawful character is complete in such cases? If prudent members of legislative bodies which disclose such tendencies do not fix on some criterion, will not the people be likely to do so, vigilantly and remorselessly? Our hopes have ever been and are in the efficiency of the ballot box to destroy the infamous abuses which oppress and dishonor the nation. But if that be made void by acts of Congress, that terrific and all-stroying madness which goes under the name of "reaction" in Roman history, might arise in a day or an hour to swell and sweep no man knows whither. Are these unprincipled demagogues determined to provoke the quiescent people into sudden and awful retribution?

Better than risk that dreadful possibility, the adherents of the Constitution might organize themselves on a military basis, provide themselves with arms, and prepare to stand by civil order and fair elections against all comers. It may yet become conservative to prepare for revolution, and hold over the heads of traitors and usurpers the sword of Original Sovereignty. The reserved rights of the people must not be menaced by their own servants, who dare to suspend the Constitution. If suspended, let it be suspended by them that made it, and can make it again when they shall have put down its betrayers. But happily the Constitution itself is organized for such a work. It provides for the case of general tyranny of public agents. It studiously reserves, undelegated and eternally undelegable, in their natural state, all the powers and means for saving it against the treachery, the weakness, the money, and the army of its ministers and agents. It is a part of the Constitution that all citizens shall bear arms in its defense, and their right to do so "SHALL NOT BE INFRINGED." He, therefore, who perceives armed organizations growing up, under the patronage of public agents, as of others, without being called for by the judges and marshals, and without public war, must, if he is in his senses, see that the roof over his head, the security of his hearthstone, the liberty of his person, are in danger; and what then? Let him listen to the Constitution of his country, obey the deep undertone of reserved rights which it pronounces, and combine with his neighbors in an open and public pledge, to arm, organize, and train for resistance the moment a blow is struck by the threatening party. Hostility to this would be but a frightful proof of its imminent necessity as a last resort for public order.

The political parties are now fairly in the field for a peaceful contest at the hustings. One of them is about to resort to arms. What shall the other do? The other party must help the armed opponent by not arming itself, or it must save the peace by arming too. The indications are startling. Let the real situation be understood.

Undoubtedly the objects of this movement are, at least, to give full effect to the disfranchising provisions of the Scalawag State Constitutions, to keep the negroes loyal, and to prevent the voting of the disfranchised whites.

Undoubtedly, also, the Radical faction means that if Grant is elected by means of the votes of the Scalawag-negro States, he shall be installed as President. The Democrats declare themselves determined that, in that case, he shall not; and are organizing, it is stated by those who know, a force with which to carry their purpose into effect. Whether the Radicals will attempt, if even with the negro vote, Grant is not elected, still to instal him, we do not undertake to say; but they have done many a thing as outrageous as that, and will hardly stickle at anything to maintain themselves in power.

We commend the advice of the Intelligencer to the white men of the South. Eight thousand rifled muskets are not to be put at the disposition of Gov. Brownlow for nothing. The Irishman's opinion was a wise one: "The best way to avoid danger is to meet it plump in the face." Mark! William G. Brownlow tells the Legislature of Tennessee, that the paroled rebel soldiers were forming themselves, last winter, into secret organized bands, to overthrow the State Government, and carry the Presidential election. He regards those bands as murderers and robbers, and recommends that the Legislature declare them outlaws, punishable with death wherever found."

That the Legislature has no power to do any such thing is of little importance, we presume, to Gov. Brownlow. But it is quite too evident that the reckless lunatic is bent on inaugurating a civil war. "Forewarned is forearmed."

FATAL DUEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

Paul Laresche, Esq., Jr., Shot and almost instantly Killed by J. S. Bossier, Esq.

The Particulars.

From Sunday's Crescent.]

ANOTHER TRAGEDY.

A duel was yesterday morning, at 11 o'clock, fought between Paul Laresche, jr., and J. S. Bossier. The ground was a little back of the Barracks, below the city; the weapons were double-barreled shot guns. Mr. Laresche was shot through the abdomen, and, we regret to chronicle, died shortly afterwards. Mr. Bossier was afterwards arrested and confined at the Second District stationhouse. It appears that the police in some way got wind of the affair yesterday morning, and as a means of preventing it, arrested Mr. Laresche's brother, who, however, refused to give any information, and was therefore put under bonds to keep the peace. Since the duel, he and the physician who was present at the duel, have been arrested, accused of being accessories before the deed. The nature of the difficulty we do not know, but have been told that it originated in a dispute relative to a lady. Mr. Laresche was the challenging party.

Since writing the above we have learned the following additional particulars: There had been a quarrel existing for some days between the parties, both of them very young men. Mr. Laresche, in an altercation, on Thursday forenoon, on Commercial Alley, told Mr. Bossier to consider his face slapped. Mr. Bossier was inclined to treat the matter as a jest, and the parties separated. Meeting afterwards, words became so high that Mr. Bossier struck Mr. Laresche, and received a challenge the same day. Mr. Bossier accepted and selected the double barrel gun, double loaded with ball. The parties met about half-past eleven a.m., yesterday, in the rear of a plantation near the battle-ground. At the first fire, Mr. Laresche's ball passed very near Mr. Bossier's face, whilst the latter's gun snapped the cap merely, and did not go off. At the second fire, Mr. Bossier pulled trigger at the word one, firing first, and shooting his antagonist through the body above the hips. Mr. Laresche's aim, of course, was disconcerted by the wound, but his gun went off, although the ball, as might be expected, sped wide of its mark. Mr. Laresche sunk immediately upon the ground, and began to fail, notwithstanding the aid of a skillful physician. He was borne to a carriage and transported to his father's residence, where he expired, without suffering, about half-past three in the afternoon yesterday.

The writer saw the survivor in this most unfortunate catastrophe in Msj. Manning's office, at the Second District police headquarters, last night. He is a young man of probably twenty-five years, and proved himself a gallant soldier on the losing side in the Confederate cause. He lost a leg at Fredericksburg, and has always been highly esteemed by his fellow soldiers and officers. Mr. Laresche was also a brave and irreproachable soldier in the same army. His venerable father and all the members of his family went out of the Federal lines to Richmond when Banks sent out the registered enemies. No one laments the tragical result of the meeting more than the survivor, who assured us last night that he would willingly have changed places with his opponent, as all he has to live for is his aged mother, for whom he seems to entertain the most devoted affection. We deeply sympathize with the afflicted families in both cases.

We understand that the father of Mr. Laresche positively refused to allow the city physician to make a post-mortem examination of his son's body, saying that he had had a physician with him at the time of his death and therefore such examination was unnecessary. A coroner's inquest will be held this morning at 9 o'clock.

The same paper of the same date, says: "We were sorry to find, on visiting the Second District police station, last evening, that Dr. Bergot, who had accompanied one of the parties in the late fatal duel, as a surgeon, called to some duty he had no idea of the nature of, until the affair was over, was in durance and restrained of his liberty until such time as the matter should be examined. Dr. Bergot is of the Paris faculty, formerly surgeon of the army of Africa, ex surgeon of the French Imperial service at Havana, and bears a very high character.

Noon Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Admiral Dahlgreen assumes the duties of Chief of Ordnance on the 1st of August.

There is no probability that the President will sign the Funding Bill, which, therefore, fails to become a law.

There are twenty-five supervisors and two hundred detectives to be appointed under the new tax bill; and, since it was signed by the President, a large number of applications have been filed at the Internal Revenue office for appointment to said positions, many applicants being collectors and assessors seeking promotion. The detectives will probably be chosen from among the most efficient officers of the late corps of agents and inspectors. Under the provisions of the new bill, about three hundred inspectors, two hundred special agents and ten revenue agents went out of office.

Quite a number of members of Congress, who were unable to leave this city, are engaged in transacting business important to them and their constituents. Several have also visited the Executive Mansion, for the purpose of closing up business which required the consideration of the President, prior to their departure for home.

The First National Bank of Marlboro, Mass., made application to the Treasury Department yesterday for a reservation of their appointment as a Government depository and Government agent.

CARPET-BAG SENATORS.

The election of Senator Robinson excited no feeling; but the subsequent race for the long term was quite the contrary. It lasted three days and thus gave ample opportunity for full sweep. Mackey, Sawyer and French was the order in which they were set out, all three being confident, from promises of voters, of their being elected. This failure to keep promises produced a great deal of bitterness and personal recrimination, and sometimes the scenes were stormy enough. Harsh words were bandied with great license. Candidates were accused of buying votes with money, and one of our State newspapers has stated the prices paid by one of these candidates as being from $50 to $300 for each vote. I have never seen such unblushing purchase of favor, and doubt if such has ever been presented by a legislative body before. The success of the Conservative Republicans in this election of Senator Sawyer will doubtless so exasperate the extremists that we shall soon see yet bitterer fruits from this tree. Cor. N. Y. Times.

This picture of the election for Senators in South Carolina, under the "reconstruction" acts of Congress, furnishes a fair illustration of the process and means that were employed in the other Southern States, and presents a sad commentary upon the condition of things which Radical rule has brought about. It is the testimony of a Radical witness, writing from the scene of corruption, who is certainly not inclined to exaggerate the shortcomings of his own political friends, or to paint their enormities in stronger colors than really exist.—National Intelligencer.

Dr. Albert G. Mackey is a South Carolinian by birth, and was the President, while Collector of the port of Charleston, of the body of negroes plus some whites, called the "Constitutional Convention" of that miserable State. Sawyer is Northern-born, and one of the set who, in 1863, threw up rockets as signals to the Federal fleet, when blockade-runners were about to put to sea. We should like to see the "Conservative" Republicans who elected him Senator over Mackey.

The Intelligencer asks:

What must honorable Senators and members in Congress, who really represent States and constituencies, and who feel a just pride in forming a part of the National Legislature, think of the body and of themselves, whatever may be their party affinities, when forced to recognize, with only here and there an exception, the venal adventurers, convicted knaves and characterless "scalawags" who have been sent here by force and fraud to legislate for an outraged and oppressed people? Who can look upon such but with scorn and contempt, knowing that they represent nothing but the tyranny of military power and the infamous practices of the Freedmen's Bureau?

The Rump Parliament was an assembly of Demigods, compared to the Congress of the United States, since the miserable devils who pretend to represent the South, have crawled into the two Houses, and pollute the seats where honorable men once sat. The Senate is even worse than the House, because the proportion of scalawags in it is larger.

The Intelligencer well says, of these creatures, the goitred political cretins whom force and fraud have lifted into high place:

When the legislation of this vast country is committed to such hands—to men who are bound by no high moral or political responsibility whatever—what is to be expected but a more extended sway of venality and of villainy? These fabricated Senators will wield an immense influence by concentrating their strength, and, in the divisions incident to local and other causes, may hold the balance of power upon many questions of national magnitude, and involving hundreds of millions of money. They will vote as interest directs, and it will not require much experience for them to discover where it lies, or to find prompters who have long since found "loyalty" a most profitable trade, as well as a convenient profession. When New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and the mighty West find out, as they soon must do, that these bogus legislators, who have been foisted into Congress by the most barefaced frauds, can negative their votes and voices in the public councils, and by corrupt combinations may impose upon them the most serious burdens, they will be apt to think that negro supremacy is a two-edged sword, which, while invented to cut down the rights and liberties of the South, may be equally potential in destroying the prosperity and in over-slaughing the representation of the North. Then we shall see how they will relish the medicine which has been so cruelly and wickedly prescribed to a crushed and impoverished people.

There has been such a body before, as the present Congress of the United States. There have been such successors, as our Senators are, of the Statesmen and Heroes who made a Commonwealth illustrious. That body was found in the Roman Senate under Caracalla and Vitellius, and Caligula and Commodus. Such a Senate was possible when the horse of the Emperor was made Consul. Then the basest of the base and the vilest of the vile were the successors of Cato and Scævola, of Cicero and Cæsar. But Rome required a thousand years to sink it into that pit of degradation; while the United States have needed only eighty. It is time to shut the book and read no further.

We said, lately, in an address delivered to an audience in Mississippi:

"Return, days of the Golden Age of the Republic, when the States were Peers and Sovereigns, and sole parties to the solemn compact of the Constitution. . . . .

"Young men, it is for you to bring back these golden days. The South is our land; the North is a foreign and hostile realm. Stand at the altar of your country. Swear eternal hatred of its oppressors. Swear that the day shall come, when the Susquehanna and Ohio shall be like rivers of fire, as they are now rivers of blood, between your native land and that of the Northern Huns, which no man shall attempt to cross, and live."

Finished at two o'clock on the morning of the day of its delivery, and not read over for correction, the words, "if these oppressions continue," were not inserted, as they should have been, where we have placed an asterisk.

If the Union can be restored on the old basis,—if our States can be readmitted into the Union as equals,—if the Union of the States, as the Fathers made it can be restored,—then we are ready to say "ESTO PERPETUA!" That Union we loved, and could wish no better fortune for our children, none better for our States than its restoration. For the return of those golden days we prayed; but the prayer is not the utterance of hope.

Our States, so far as they have returned into the Union, have not returned as equals, but as inferiors. They crouch to receive their burthen. The white men of the South are forced to accept the negroes as their political peers, while those who force this upon them refuse to accept them as such for themselves. The States of the North regulate the matter of suffrage for themselves. Those of the South agree to be kicked out of the Union, if they ever take from the negro a privilege that he is wholly unfit to exercise.

The Northern States put in force over us Constitutions conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity. They confirm and enforce the disfranchisement of a third of the white race in all the South. They are our tyrants and oppressors, and we are their slaves and serfs and victims. Such a Union, as we have said heretofore, is like the union of the living man and dead corpse tied together by Mezentius.

"All our States lie fainting, dying,
Each to each with sobs replying;"

and the brutal tyrants of the worst days of Rome are reproduced and exaggerated in the Stevenses, the Butlers, the Logans, the Binghams, the Schencks, and their aiders and abettors.

A standing army of negroes is to be organized in each State, to keep the Caucasian under the rule of the semi-civilized Africans. The child of the Anglo-Saxon and the son of the Huguenot, the representatives of the chivalry of France and the cavaliers of England, the descendants of the Vikings and the Norman heroes are disfranchised, and the negro, armed with the bayonet, votes.

If this should not be wholly changed; if the luxury of revenge, sweet to the base, and hate and the incalculable villainies of a sordid tyranny do not give place to a generous forgetfulness of past animosities and the bloody tragedies of the war, then no permanent brotherhood between us and the people of the North is possible. Hate and the sense of wrong, and the longing for revenge, are not the cohesive attraction that can consolidate Commonwealths into an Empire.

We are not of those who hold that the overpowering of the South by the Northern legions in the late war, has settled the construction of the Constitution as to the rights of the States. We do not accept Force as the interpreter of civil compacts. To us, the Constitution is now precisely what it always was, and the only true Union, the Union of the States as sovereigns, is sovereign solely by means of their sovereignty. Our oath, required of us as the condition of immunity, is to support, preserve and defend the Constitution, "and the Union of the STATES thereunder." There is no union of the States now: and our political creed can be very briefly expressed. "The Union of the States under the constitutional compact between them, all free, sovereign and independent; or a South independent of the North."

We do not admit that the consolidation of the States and the destruction of their sovereignty are legitimated by the result of the appeal to arms. We do not love, and will not pretend to love that Union, though we have agreed to obey the laws of the conqueror. If the old Union cannot be restored, we will hope to see the the South independent before we die; and if Jacobinism is to become supreme in the North, we wish there could be an impassable wall or a gulf of fire between it and our Southern States.

We are frank to say that we do not believe that permanent harmony between the North and South is possible, while they continue united under one government. One will rule and the other serve. Independent of each other, they might be friends. The North is too strong for the South, and the South too much at its mercy; and it never yet was known in the history of the world, that strong States did not oppress and vex and encroach upon their weak neighbors.

The triumph of the Democracy at the coming election, would hold the Union together, for a time, because the South would then be dealt with justly and generously. But this would not last long; and new discontents would be continually caused by new impositions, exactions and oppressions, until the country would divide, perhaps into three or four Republics. It is by far too large to remain very long under one government; and the day will come when the South will be independent. We may not see that day, but our children will.

ON THE 25th inst., a notorious negro thief, known in Vicksburg as "Shanghai George," was killed by a Mr. Nineon Gibson. George had robbed several families in that vicinity, and Gen. Gibbon, upon application, gave Mr. Gibson written instructions to take the rascal dead or alive. Proceeding to the home of George, he was found cutting wood. Having been commanded to deliver himself up, the order of arrest was exhibited, when he drew the ax and threatened to kill Mr. Gibson if he did not desist from his course, saying no white man living should arrest him. He attempted to start off, when Mr. Gibson again ordered him to surrender, and meeting with the same response, the killing then ensued.

PARKS, Moore and Jerrelle, the Adams' Express robbers, arrested at Mattoon, Cole county, Ill., on Friday, arrived at Seymour, Ind., at half past ten o'clock on the 25th, and soon after left in a wagon, with a guard, for Brownstown. When near the vicinity where Clifton, Elliott and Roseberry were hung, the wagon was suddenly surrounded by about one hundred and fifty armed men, all masked. The guards were overpowered, and the prisoners taken out and hung. At last accounts they were still hanging on the same tree where the others were hung.

A SON OF COL. MAHONE, of Edwards' Depot, Hinds county, Miss., shot and killed a negro in self-defense on Sunday evening last. The negroes in the neighborhood gathered, and Mr. Mahone had to leave home.

The most eloquent speaker in the North German Parliament, is Dr. Wm. Lowe, for several years a resident of New York.

THE KU-KLUX.

Their Latest Orders in Regard to the Franklin Outrage.

Important Documents.

From the Franklin Review]

The following orders, or whatever they may be called, were dropped in the post-office on Wednesday, addressed to the "Editor Franklin Review." There was no clue whatever by which they could be traced to any source, even by the most inquisitive. Owing to the degree of interest that is manifested about the Ku-Klux, we will depart from our usual custom and publish them. Across the back of the first was inscribed the following:

Mr. Editor: You will please give this communication and special order publication without fail. K. K.

FIRST ORDER OF THE GRAND SAINT.

DOMINION No. 5, REALM No. 1,
DREADFUL EPOCH, THIRD PURPLE ERA,
FRIGHTFUL HOUR.

Rape, murder, arson and similar crimes must be suppressed. There is no blood that courses the veins of our noble order that is too precious to be shed in defense of and for the protection of the true and warm hearted ladies of our Province. Mothers and sisters, you will be protected, though you may not know from what source it comes. We may not be able at all times to prevent you from being outraged, but we will always be in time to avenge such outrages. Hundreds of tried and true gallants will rally to your rescue on the slightest notice from the G. G.

Ladies, "watch and pray." Yes, pray for us and your country. Our mission is to protect you. This we will do at all hazards. Authoritative reprieves may expose you to the malice and violence of the evil. They may make you the victims of such an outrage as that which now mortifies the hearts of all the good of the land. But there is a power that knows no reprieves for such crimes, and that will watch over you in an hour of danger.

The warmest sympathies of our Klan are extended to Miss Ezell and her distressed friends. We avenged the outrage fully. We hanged and shot Bill, the vilest of all criminals. He acknowledged everything, and expressed no compunction. The crime was beyond the catalogue of all human crimes. The criminal was a fiend! We made sure work. The jailor done his duty. We would have executed him if it had cost every drop of blood in our Klan. Such will be the fate of all similarly guilty.

GRAND GIANT.
First Goblin and Grand Scribe.

SECOND ORDER, NO. 2.

HEADQUARTERS PROVINCE No. 1,
DOMINION No. 5, REALM No. 1,
DREADFUL EPOCH, THIRD CRIMSON ERA,
HIDEOUS HOUR.

General Order No 2.

Information having reached these headquarters that negroes in certain localities of the Province are banding themselves together and are arming for the purpose of shooting the Ku-Klux, it is deemed expedient in pursuance of General Order No. 1, from the G. D. of Realm, to order such mischievous and evil bands to disperse at once, or immediate steps will be taken to force you to do so. Your safety depends upon your compliance: if you fail, it is needless to tell you that you will suffer. If you behave, you will be protected, rather than molested. Offenders, or any character of lawlessness, will be punished in the most rigid manner. By order of G. G.

FIRST GOBLIN AND GRAND SCRIBE.

EXCITEMENT IN LOUISIANA.

A Band of Outlaws—The Radicals at Work.

From the Vicksburg Herald of the 28th.]

Information has reached us of a serious disturbance in Franklin parish, La. It seems from the statements made to us, that a body of desperadoes, black and white, something near two hundred in number, invaded Franklin parish early last week, and began a system of highway robbery on a high scale. The citizens becoming alarmed for their safety, banded together, and on last Thursday night met the miscreants, and killed fifteen negroes and five of the white men. The freebooters then began a retreat, closely pursued by their incensed assailants. They were followed to St. Joseph, where all trace of them was lost. The whole country was in a state of excitement and under arms. There were some apprehensions entertained of an attack at other points, and the citizens to guard against such a prospect put armed sentinels about their places of residence and on the roads. At Duckport, just above this place, in Louisiana, there was some firing for two nights (Saturday and Sunday) between the guards stationed there and parties who attempted to enter, but as far as we can learn, no one was killed.

He was found hanging to a tree a few days afterward. The deceased has a son living in Memphis, who, we learn, has repeatedly offered to minister to the wants of his father, who steadily refused every offer of assistance.

—A man calling himself A. L. This was true, but it had been some time since, and he had been tried and acquitted. In the evening he attempted to kill himself with a sword. His mind had evidently been impaired by dissipation. GEN. W. S. HANCOCK.

A Noble Letter—"Principles not Men the Motto for the Rugged Crisis"—He Rebukes the Revolution which "Had Invaded every Sacred Precinct" and Calls upon his Friends to Support Seymour and Blair.

From the Louisville Courier of 28th.]

We have been furnished copies of letters which have just passed between Gen. Hancock and a gentleman of St. Louis. The Courier has the honor of making them public in advance of all other journals, and our readers will agree with us that the letter below is worthy of the great soldier and sterling patriot who wrote the letter to Gov. Pease. It is not only a manly letter, but it is emphatic. The earnest, glowing language will convince every reader that Gen. Hancock wrote, as he felt, like a man who puts his country above every personal aspiration, and regards the success of Democratic principles as the only political salvation.

LETTER OF S. T. GLOVER, ESQ
ST. LOUIS, July 13, 1868.

Maj.-Gen. Hancock:

Dear Sir: I deem it proper to direct your attention to statements made by the Radical press, to the effect that you are greatly dissatisfied with the results of the National Democratic Convention. The object of these statements is to create the impression that you do not acquiesce in the judgment of the Convention, and that your friends do not, and in consequence Seymour and Blair will not have their cordial support.

I wish you to know, General, that I have taken the liberty to pronounce these statements false, and to assure those who have spoken with me on the subject that nothing could cause you more regret than to find your friends, or any of them, less earnest in supporting the ticket which has been nominated, than they would have been had your own name stood in the place of Mr. Seymour.

I am, sir, very sincerely your friend,
S. T. GLOVER.

GEN. HANCOCK'S REPLY.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 17, 1868.

S. T. Glover, Esq., St. Louis, Mo.:

My Dear Sir: I am greatly obliged for your favor of the 13th inst.

Those who suppose that I do not acquiesce in the work of the National Democratic Convention, or that I do not sincerely desire the election of the nominees, know very little of my character. Believing as I verily do, that the preservation of constitutional government eminently depends on the success of the Democratic party, in the coming election, were I to hesitate in its cordial support, I feel I should not only falsify my own record, BUT COMMIT A CRIME AGAINST MY COUNTRY.

I never aspired to the Presidency on account of myself.

I never sought its doubtful honors and certain labors and responsibilities merely for the position.

My own wish was to promote, if I could, the good of the country, and to rebuke the spirit of revolution which had invaded every sacred precinct of liberty. When, therefore, you pronounced the statements in question false, you did exactly right. "Principles, and not men," is the motto for the rugged crisis in which we are now struggling.

Had I been made the Presidential nominee, I should have considered it a tribute, not to me, but to principles which I had proclaimed and practiced. But shall I cease to revere those principles, because, by the judgment of mutual political friends another has been appointed to put them into execution? Never! Never! These, sir, are my sentiments, whatever interested parties may say to the contrary; and I desire that all may know and understand them.

I shall ever hold in grateful remembrance the faithful friends who, hailing from every section of the Union, preferred me by their votes and other expressions of confidence, both in and out of the Convention; and shall do them all the justice to believe that they were governed by patriotic motives; that they did not propose simply to aggrandize my personal fortunes, but to serve their country through me; and that they will not now suffer anything like personal preferences or jealousies to stand between them and their manifest duty. I have the honor to be, dear sir,

Very respectfully, yours,
WINFIELD S. HANCOCK.

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating bottom lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Farrington & Howell's, 268 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the 8 set Combs Gin before the war, but now a planter, gives the following certificate:

"MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the hulls, bolls, etc., from the Seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saws and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 268 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Presses and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skilful Gin wright.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The meeting of delegates to select a Congressman and Electors for the Eighth District of Tennessee, will be held at Brownsville on the 10th of August.

J. J. BUTLER, Esq., the old Wharfmaster, is out in a card as a candidate or Justice of the Peace.

LEFT OUT.—The notice of the Young Men's Independent Democratic Club was left out by an oversight, for which we are very sorry.

CORRECTION.—In the bids for the county printing yesterday, a 3 was converted into a 5 in the Bulletin's bid, by an error of the printer—quite a difference.

A SCORCHER.—Yesterday was another sliping hot day—way up in the nineties, until about one o'clock. After that hour the skies clouded over, and the heat moderated very considerably.

LECTURE.—Dr. McGuffey, the distinguished eclectic compiler of reading books for schools, will deliver a free lecture in the basement of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church this evening. See notice in another place.

SHELBYVILLE MALE HIGH SCHOOL. We call the attention of the readers of the APPEAL to the advertisement of the above institution of learning in another column. J. W. Todd, A.M., is Principal, aided by an efficient corps of assistants.

SCIENCE HILL FEMALE ACADEMY. The eighty-seventh semi-annual session will commence September 7th. The academy is located at Shelbyville, one of the most healthy locations in Kentucky. Mrs. Julia A. Tevis is Principal. See advertisement elsewhere.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, at their recent session, having appointed a day of fasting and prayer, appropriate services will be held at the Second Presbyterian Church, on the corner of Main and Beal streets, today at 10:30 o'clock. Christian people and all interested are invited to attend.

PERSONAL.

—T. W. Johnston, Esq., Cashier of the First National Bank, of this city, left for the Northern watering places yesterday, and will return, we hope, in time for the season's business.

—H. P. Butler, Esq., agent of the old reliable Phœnix, also left via Nashville for the North yesterday, on a short pleasure trip.

MISCEGENATION.—We are informed that a certain auctioneer, with a Hollandish prefix to his name, whose establishment is on Madison street, between Main and Second, was yesterday seen by several gentlemen to sit down to the table and eat dinner with a big buck negro. They appeared to enjoy each other's society amazingly, and seemed for a time to be

"Two souls with but a single thought—
Two hearts that beat as one."

PREPARING HIS WARRIORS.—We have been informed by two colored men, in whose word we place reliance, that W. J. Smith, one of the Radical candidates for Congress, a few days ago offered to sell a carbine to one of them, cheap. Our informant states that Smith told him he had quite a large number of guns that he could choose from, and that he would sell them all very cheap.

This matter ought to be looked into, and if this fellow is up to any such devilish work he ought to be attended to immediately.

A CARD.—Mr. Smith, leader of the Memphis Brass Band, and Mr. Wind, his assistant, contracted to play for Fire Company No. 3 at our removal this morning. Yesterday evening, without giving us any notification of his intentions, or leaving any excuse for his conduct, he left the city with his band. This is to notify the public that these parties are not to be depended upon, are utterly irresponsible, and not deserving the patronage of the Memphis public.

Captain Steam Fire Engine No. 3.

POLICE ITEMS.

—A 'black bird,' just out of the cage, or in other words, a darky just out of jail, whose name we were unable to learn, was caught yesterday about noon, in the rear of Messrs. Church & Co.'s bookstore, with a bundle of clothing in his possession. On searching him it was found that he had six pair of pants, five shirts, and several other duds on his sable person. His captors peeled off the several layers of dry goods and carried him to the Adams street station.

—'Squire Griffith continued the case of L. H. Coe, Esq., charged with shooting the two Boyts with intent to kill, until this morning at 10 o'clock. Coe is under bonds of $20,000 to appear.

—Mr. Montague went to a house that he ought not to have been caught in, and got on the rampage and smashed things generally. He was fined five dollars and costs by 'Squire Griffith for his fun. Took an appeal.

—There were five arrests in the second district yesterday—all for trifling offenses, except one State case.

—Six arrests only at the first district up to midnight last night, all for trivial offenses.

FOR TEN DAYS ONLY.—W. Y. Cirode assignee of P. I. Huette & Co., bankrupts, will sell the balance of the stock at No. 195 Main street, at twenty per cent. below New York and manufacturers' cost, in lots to suit purchasers. Fancy goods, drugs, paints, oils, perfumery, etc. jy23 eod 10t

THE DRAYMEN AND CARTERS.

Great Demonstration of the Workingmen.

A Procession Two Miles and a Quarter in Length.

The public have been kept posted by reports from time to time in the daily press of the city, of the progress of the organized resistance on the part of the draymen, carters, hackmen and others interested, against the act of the Legislature, or rather the construction put by Mr. John Loague, County Clerk, upon the act of the Legislature levying a tax upon their vehicles. This resistance has been going on for some three months, and the best legal talent of the city has been consulted on both sides.

A few days ago a notice was published in the daily papers, stating that distress warrants had been issued, and were in the hands of the proper officer for enforcement, and calling upon all the draymen, carters, and others interested, in the city, to assemble on Wednesday morning and march in procession through the streets.

Accordingly about 9 o'clock yesterday morning the majority of the drivers of allsorts of vehicles in the city, assembled, with their turnouts, on the bluff, between Madison and Monroe streets, and were arranged in procession in the following order: At the head of the column was the Marshal, Thos. Ford, Esq., assisted by T. W. O'Donnell, Esq., President Draymen's Association, C. J. Hargan and Thos. Madden, Esqs., as assistants. A large band wagon, covered with canvass, came next. On the sides of this wagon was painted a design representing a donkey with an enormous bale, or load upon his back. The load was labelled "tax," with the legend, "Hard to tote." On the one side of this was inscribed, "Give the poor a chance," and on the other, "No taxation on labor." The band was followed by seventeen hacks in which were seated the Mayor, Aldermen and city officers. These were followed by about two hundred and fifty carts and drays, and some fifteen or twenty parcel express wagons, making in all about two hundred and sixty-five or seventy vehicles. Allowing only thirty-five feet apace, (which is a small estimate) it would make the procession the very respectable length of two miles, nearly.

After forming, the line of march was taken up, and the procession passed down Front to Vance, through Vance to Main, up Main to Sycamore, through Sycamore to Second, down Second to Madison, through Madison to Front again, and thence to the City Hall—at which point they were addressed by Mayor Leftwich, Judge Swayne and Attorney Morgan. After the addresses, the assemblage broke up, and most of the participants returned to their daily avocations.

To form some idea of the grievances of which these sons of toil have to complain, we will simply state a fact brought to our notice by one of them yesterday. The city tax on a single dray is eleven dollars; on a double dray, seventeen. The State and county tax, in addition to that, is twenty-one dollars, making a total of thirty-two dollars. The amount of money represented by a horse and dray is a hundred and fifty dollars. So here we have a yearly tax of thirty-two dollars on one hundred and fifty! Was anything ever more iniquitous or burthensome?

The whole affair was most admirably conducted, and the order maintained was marvellous, considering the number of men engaged in the demonstration. Such an uprising as this of the bone and sinew of the people, cannot fail to have great effect in urging upon those who have the power an abatement of their grievances.

In conclusion, we are requested to insert the following:

Messrs. Editors: As there is an opinion prevailing that the Draymen's Association is a political organization, or that it can be used for that purpose, the officers of the Association wish it distinctly understood that there is nothing proscriptive, partisan or political connected with it. They would, also, wish to state that they are under obligations to Messrs. J. C. Holst and others, for furnishing musical accommodations.

In behalf of the officers.
JAMES B. SCOTT, Sec.

LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

Eighth Ward Democratic Club.

There was a large concourse of the "unterrified" assembled at the mass meeting in Market Square, numbering at least 1000, last night.

The meeting was called to order, in quite a happy style, by Capt. J. L. H. Taylor, who then introduced to the meeting Col. A. M. Lewis, who, notwithstanding the shower that came up at the time, held his audience spell bound, by the elucidation he gave between the merits of Gov. Seymour, the Democratic nominee, and Gen. Grant, the Radical nominee. During his speech he was interrupted with cheers by the mass.

Mr. Ed. A. Beecher was then introduced, and spoke on the labor question of the day, showing the grinding down of the poor by the unjust taxation of the Radical party; also the difference in our financial status from 1860, under Democratic rule, and the present condition of financial matters under Radical rule.

Gen. Pike was then introduced, and received amidst the most vociferous applause, and electrified the audience by his enunciations at length of the grievances, insults and injuries they have received at the hands of Radical rule since the termination of the war, and sat down amidst thunders of applause.

It was then announced that there would be a regular meeting of the Club at their rooms to-night at 8 o'clock, on business of importance.

Loud calls were made for Col. E. M. Yerger, who came forward and spoke in his usual felicitous manner, calling on every man to come forward and do his duty to his country, now or never.

The meeting then dispersed with cheers for the defeat of Joe Brown, as Senator in the United States Congress from Georgia.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I see by yesterday's APPEAL that Prof. W. H. McGuffey, of the University of Virginia, will deliver a lecture on "Education." It is to be hoped that the intelligent part of our community will attend, for they will be highly pleased and instructed by the lecture. He is regarded by those well qualified to judge, as the first man in moral science in America. On the subject of "Education" he has no equal anywhere. The married ladies are requested to attend, as they will learn much that will aid them in the moral education of boys and girls at home. The writer has had the pleasure of listening to Dr. McGuffey upon these subjects, and knows what he says. ILLUMNUS OF U. OF VA.

THE COE-BOYT AFFRAY.

No one but one who has served in the capacity of a local reporter can form any idea of the difficulties attending the attempt to obtain a perfectly correct report of any sensational item. Each successive person applied to for information, gives a different version of the affair from the one just given by some one else. Frequently these reports are diametrically opposed to each other, and it is impossible to reconcile them with any degree of plausibility.

This fact was remarkably noticeable yesterday, in the different accounts given by the papers of the unfortunate shooting affray which occurred between L. H. Coe, Esq., and the Boyts, on Tuesday evening. The account given by the APPEAL was taken down verbatim from the mouth of Mr. Coe in 'Squire Griffith's office, while his examination was going on and his bail being fixed. We thought that we certainly had the particulars "all right." We were told by Mr. Coe that the younger Boyt was mortally wounded and the elder slightly. An hour or so later a gentleman from the neighborhood of Elmwood called on us, and stated that young Boyt was dead; and so we wrote it up.

We are happy, however, to be able to state that up to the latest information that we were able to obtain yesterday evening, Mr. Boyt, jr., was still living, though in a very precarious situation. Mr. Boyt, sr., was not touched by a single shot, although several passed through his hat.

The Bulletin's account contains, in sixty lines, only twenty-six glaring and ridiculous errors. In the very first sentence there are four, and more or less in every subsequent sentence.

The Avalanche is nearly as bad, and makes out that to have been a cowardly and brutal murder which really was an act of self-defense. The Ledger and Post are substantially the same as the APPEAL, the latter using our very words, even to the typographical error which caused $20,000 to read $2000.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee.

Delegates from all the Clubs Present.

Pursuant to a call issued in the papers of yesterday, from Gen. Pike, President of the Central Democratic Club, the Central Executive Committee and representatives, or delegates from each of the Ward clubs, met at the APPEAL editorial rooms, at 2½ o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Present and presiding, Gen. Albert Pike, Chairman of Central Club, also the following delegates:

From the Central Club: M. D. L. Stewart, A. E. Frankland, M. Meacham.
Young Men's Independent Democratic Club: Gen. Rucker, S. S. Anderson.
Young Men's Independent Democratic Seymour Club: Thos. O. Smith.
First Ward Club: Owen Dwyer.
Second Ward Club: J. W. Page, jr.
Third Ward Club: —— ——.
Fourth Ward Club: T. A. Nelson.
Fifth Ward Club: Dr. Wilkerson.
Sixth Ward Club: R. J. Morgan, R. H. Sylvester.
Seventh Ward Club: John S. Carr.
Eighth Ward Club: H. Marks, G. P. Foute.
Ninth Ward Club: W. S. Adams.
Tenth Ward Club: A. J. Hays.
Overton Hotel Club: Louis Schiffner.
M. D. L. Stewart, Esq., represented Shelby County Executive Committee, and C. M. Widrig, Esq., the Memphis Democratic Paving Club.

The meeting was called to order, and the committee appointed at the last executive meeting of the Club to procure a suitable place to hold a general mass meeting, reported through Gen. Rucker in favor of taking the cotton shed of E. M. Apperson, corner of Jefferson and Fourth streets.

On motion, the report was received and adopted.

Messrs. William Carroll, Minor Merriwether and Thomas O. Smith were appointed a committee to have same fitted up for use.

R. J. Morgan, from the Sixth Ward, brought the finance question before the meeting, and after some discussion it was moved by A. E. Frankland, and seconded by G. P. Foute, that the President of the Central Club be empowered to draw on each ward and other independent clubs their pro rata ratio of whatever means may be required to pay such expenses as may be incurred by them.

Motion was carried nem. con.

M. D. L. Stewart offered a resolution looking to the same view, but it was withdrawn.

It was suggested that blanks be prepared by the Central Club for the Secretaries of various Clubs, for the purpose of obtaining complete lists of members, and such other information as may be deemed necessary by the Central Club, and required by its Constitution; the blanks to be filled by each Club and returned to the Central. The suggestion was adopted, and C. M. Widrig, Esq., appointed a committee of one on form of blanks.

An invitation was received to attend a "pole raising" at the Ford Place, Chelsea, to-morrow night.

After transacting some other business, and a free interchange of opinions, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

THE NICHOLSON PAVEMENT.—The Board of Aldermen, among whom there are men with quite as much brains, as keen a sense of justice and right, as much knowledge of law, and quite as much independence of character as Col. Tyler possesses, decided on Tuesday afternoon that they had no power to break a contract legally made, or to change the mode provided for paying for that contract, and that the Nicholson pavement, as now being laid down and paid for, should progress. Col. Tyler, who failed in his attempts to prove the law to be on his side, or to convince by other argument, came out in his paper yesterday evening in a very ill-natured attack upon Alderman McDavitt, of the Ninth ward, and the balance of the Board. If Col. Tyler still thinks that the contract is "illegal, unjust and inequitable," and the action of the Board on Tuesday a perpetuation of the same, the courts of the law are open to him, as they were before, and he has the same recourse to them now as he had on Tuesday afternoon, when he brought his legal lore to bear against the passage of the perpetuating resolution.

Perhaps he may succeed in convincing the courts—but one thing is sure, he will never convince the Memphis public that he is right by any such attacks on such public servants as Alderman McDavitt.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge. The jury in the case of Purdie vs. Southern Express Company, returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $836 16. The cases from No. 997 to 1030 were called and disposed of by trial or continuance. To-day the calendar will be taken up at case No. 1031 and proceeded with as far as possible.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter Judge.—The case of the State vs. P. D. Beecher, indictment for embezzlement, will be heard to-day on motion to quash. Attorney-General Thorne and Gen. Wallace represent the State; Messrs. Henry & Dix represent the defendant.

The next case on the calendar for yesterday, The State vs. Joe King, negro, indictment for larceny, was heard and determined, the jury finding the defendant guilty, and fixing the period of imprisonment in the penitentiary at five years.

To-day the call of the cases set for yesterday will be continued, the cases of the State vs. Charles Henderson, larceny, and the State vs. Joseph Harris, larceny, being first on the calendar for trial. On Tuesday last a nol pros was entered by the Attorney General in the case of the State vs. James Cobb, negro, indictment for burglary, in consequence of the death of the prosecuting and principal witness. The defendant was discharged. Some three hours thereafter he was caught in the act of committing a larceny, and upon hearing before a Magistrate, was sent back on yesterday to occupy his old quarters in the new jail. Several other indictments remain in the Criminal Court against him for sundry offenses.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Now that Democratic clubs are being organized in all the wards in the city, I would most respectfully offer the following suggestion: Let every club pass a resolution, (each and every member pledging himself to carry it out in full force,) that no white or colored voter, who votes the Radical ticket, will, under any circumstances, be given employment by any member of said club. Such a resolution, rigidly enforced, will do more to carry this city for Seymour and Blair than all the speeches to be made between this and the day of election.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

LOUISVILLE, July 29.—The river is stationary, with thirty-nine inches in the canal. The weather is clear and moderately warm.

MEMPHIS, July 30.—Yesterday was clear and warm until towards evening, when a thunder shower came up, which cooled things considerably. The river falls at the rate of three to four inches per day. Arkansas has thirty-six inches to Pine Bluff, thirty inches to Little Rock, and is aukle deep at least, to Spadra, but Capt. John Adams sends freight through to Fort Smith on his boats, without delay. White River is falling, with four and a half feet to Augusta.

MISCELLANEOUS.

We hope that every steamboatman in port will attend the meeting to-night at Stillman Hall. At all other ports river men have organized, and will work with a will for the white man's ticket in November, and as few men wield more influence than they do, it is to be hoped that none will fail to be present at the organization of a Boatman's Democratic Club to-night. Speeches will be made by several gentlemen.

The light draught steamer American, leaves Napoleon to morrow, on the arrival of the Natoma, for Little Rock. Bill Nowland is master, and Ed Outlaw clerk. They will both enroll their names by deputy, as members of the club, to-night.

The Gleaner departed last evening for Cincinnati with the best trip that has left for that port for some weeks.

The Liberty is the regular U. S. mail steamer for White river on Saturday.

The handsome Natoma, Capt. Lee, leaves to-day for Napoleon, where she connects with the American for Little Rock. Billy Fields has charge of the Natoma's office, and is ably assisted by Messrs. Whitehead and Lee.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, backs out at 5 p.m. to-day for Cairo and St. Louis.

The steamer Dexter, which was sunk in a storm at South Point, above Cincinnati, on Monday, and by which several lives were lost, was not Capt. Montgomery's steamer of that name.

At the adjournment of the House, the bill relating to bridges over the Ohio, was second in order for action. It now goes over till next session, and this will prevent any further work on the Newport, Cincinnati and Paducah bridges. The bridge at Louisville can be provided for by changing the main span to 400 feet. The Chairman of the Senate Postal Committee declares he will report no bill for the construction of any bridge over the Ohio river until questions now pending are decided by Congress.

The Submarine No. 12 has arrived at Vicksburg, says the Herald, from the Tallahatchie river, where she has been wrecking several of the steamboats sunk up that stream during the late war. She brought down machinery of the Pargoud, Magenta, Magnolia, L. M. Kennett, Edward J. Gay and the Prince of Wales.

The steamboat channel at Sycamore Chain, upper Mississippi, will be entirely closed on the 21 day of August. The Davenport Gazette says the light draught sternwheelers of the Northwestern line will attempt to pass by way of the raft channel, but unless there is a rise, of which there is no present prospect, it is not all probable they will succeed. The hindrance of this year, however, will be the means of benefitting navigation forever hereafter. There is some consolation in that.

The St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald says: The Union Pacific Road now employs in its transfer business at this point four hundred men, eighty teams, three steamboats and two barges. This force is kept constantly at work transferring iron and other materials for the Union Pacific Road—is employed upon the company's freight exclusively—local freights being handled by the M. R. Transfer Company.

The steamer Veteran will be sold at public auction, at Gallipolis, on Saturday next, by the United States marshal.

A desperate affray occurred at Warwick, R. I., on the 27th, arising out of resistance to an attempt of Sheriff Holden, of Kent county, assisted by four or five deputies, to arrest Capt. Betts, of the steamer Ella, and Edward Johnson, clerk, on the charge of running the boat on Sunday, and bringing crowds of disorderly persons to disturb the peace and quiet of the town of Warwick. During the fight the Sheriff was struck a terrible blow on the head with a heavy club and frightfully wounded. Finally the officers were overpowered, but subsequently, on the arrival of the boat at Providence, a strong force of police captured the Captain, clerk, engineer, fireman and three of the deck hands.

The Monitor Furnace, located at Pittsburg, opposite Ashland, Ky., together with its contents, was totally consumed by fire on Friday morning last. The fire originated from the bursting of a tank filled with melted ore. The furnace was owned by Messrs. John Peters & Co., and the loss is estimated at between sixty and seventy-five thousand dollars.

The lower Ohio is in a terrible condition, especially at Portland bar, at which place there is not over three feet water, and the channel so filled up with lumps that the chances of a boat going through without sticking is very doubtful.

The St. Louis Times of Sunday says: A distinguished negro "lady," of this city, a few days since went aboard of one of our local packets, and being thickly veiled and elegantly attired, procured one of the finest staterooms on the boat. She had her meals served in her room, and the clerk of the boat did not discover that he had a "nigger" in his "best room," until she was ready to go ashore. When he did ascertain the fact his French blood rose to boiling heat.

Government dredgeboats have improved the channel at Frenchman's bar so that boats now reach St. Paul without difficulty, but crossing the lower rapids is still troublesome, and nearly every steamer that attempts it is either driven aground or knocks a chunk out of the coffer dam.

Our Latest Improved NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

The same has been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, retaining their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised ear and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 dawly

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, July 29, 1868.

The late depression in Tennessee bonds in New York has drawn the following from the Herald of a recent date:

The pressure to sell the Tennessee bonds on Wednesday was even more marked than the day previous, and holders showed a disposition to part with them without limit as to price. It is stated on what seems to be good authority, that Gov. Brownlow will recommend to the Legislature at the extra session a general funding bill, in which the maturing bonds and interest will be funded until the income of the State from revenue is sufficient to pay the interest, the system of borrowing to meet deficiencies being obviously bad. The time of resumption upon a sound basis should not, however, be deferred a day longer than necessary, and in this connection the Governor and the Legislature would do well to try all proper methods of a conciliatory character towards the discontented element of the State before attempting to restore quiet by calling out 20,000 of the militia, as now contemplated, the costs of which, it is estimated, would be a million of dollars annually, and this, of course, would involve the postponement of interests and other payments for a much longer time than would be otherwise needful.

What does the man of sin, however, care whether the interest or bonds are ever paid, so that he can gratify his hatred towards the "discontented element" alluded to, and saddle upon the taxpayers of the State a few more of his hirelings, to suck the life-blood out of our people?

Gold advances steadily. It opened today in New York at 144¼, went up to at noon, and closed at 144¾c. Our dealers keep up a good shipping margin—buying at 142@143c; selling at 143¼@144c.

There was very little doing to-day upon the streets or at our banks. We quote the purchase of a 60 day draft on New York for $10,000 at 2½ per cent. discount; also $4000 sight on New Orleans at $2 per $1000 discount.

Bonds and stocks are nominally unchanged. We have no sales to report. City bonds are not offered, but we could learn of no one willing to buy at over 50c.

City scrip is scarce at 72@75c buying; selling at 78@80c.

County warrants dull. Buying at 52@53c; selling at 58@60c.

Police scrip dull at 70c buying; selling at 75c.

The Liverpool cotton market was steady at the opening to-day; Uplands, 9¾d; Orleans, 10¼d. At noon it was dull and declining; Uplands, 9¾d; Orleans, 10d; and at the close was heavy, with sales of 8000 bales, Uplands, 9¼d; Orleans, 9¾d. The New York market was dull and nominal at the opening: Low Middlings, 27½c; Middlings, 29c; Orleans, 29½c; Good Middlings, 31c. At 2 p.m. the market was irregular; Low Middlings, 27½c; Middlings, 29@29½c; Orleans, 29½c; Good Middlings, 31@32c. There was no further change at the close except that Middlings were quoted ⅛c higher.

This market was quiet, with sales of 2 bales shy Middlings at 28¾. In our issue of Tuesday we said that we expected the first bale of new cotton to reach New Orleans this week. By our dispatches of yesterday we learn that a new bale was received in Galveston on Tuesday, and it has doubtless reached New Orleans ere this.

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY

PUBLISHED BY THE

MASONIC PUBLISHING

—AND—

MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACCepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov. Grand Commander. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-Lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings. Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro Pike alone is due the honor and credit of exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithographic plates, showing all the jewels, clothing, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant and useful work, and one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

DR. JAMES,

FORMERLY OF JAMES' LOCK HOSPITAL, Custom House street, New Orleans, (established 1850), for the last seven years located in Chicago, and celebrated throughout the country in the successful treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES, can be confidentially consulted at his office and parlors, 91 and 93 Randolph street, corner of Dearborn street, or by mail. Postoffice Drawer 5883.

DR. JAMES treats CHRONIC MERCURIAL SYPHILITIC BLOOD and SKIN DISEASES, and all DISORDERS of a CONTAGIOUS VENEREAL CHARACTER—which he cures without the use of mercury, iodide potassi, arsenic or any poison, but with his NEUTRALIZER, a positive cure for all humors and blood poisons, and all the other baneful effects of the mineral mode, and are situate in the said county of Jefferson, in the State of Arkansas.

Also one other parcel of land in the said city of Little Rock, containing three-fourths of an acre, more or less, adjoining the said tract of three acres, on the south thereof, being the same which was conveyed to the said Robert W. Johnson by Noah H. Badgett and his wife, on the twenty-second day of August, 1859, and in their deed described as "beginning at a post eleven poles east from the northwest corner of Mrs. Martha Brookins' lot, where she now resides, thence north seven poles, thence west eleven poles to the place of beginning;" to which conveyance thereof and the conveyances and instruments of the same bearing of record in the said county of Pulaski reference is to be had for more full description of the same.

The main body of the lands in Jefferson county composes two plantations, about six miles from Pine Bluff and four from the Arkansas river, known as the Woodburne and Chalmette plantations, the former containing about 1461 acres, of which about 700 acres are cleared and fit for cultivation; and the latter about 2357 acres, of which over 1300 are cleared and ready for cultivation. These lands are five feet over base, well overflow, well drained, and in the finest cotton region of the world.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The meeting of delegates to select a Congressman and Electors for the Eighth District of Tennessee, will be held at Brownsville on the 10th of August.

J. J. BUTLER, Esq., the old Wharfmaster, is out in a card as a candidate or Justice of the Peace.

LEFT OUT.—The notice of the Young Men's Independent Democratic Club was left out by an oversight, for which we are very sorry.

CORRECTION.—In the bids for the county printing yesterday, a 3 was converted into a 5 in the Bulletin's bid, by an error of the printer—quite a difference.

A SCORCHER.—Yesterday was another piping hot day—way up in the nineties, until about one o'clock. After that hour the skies clouded over, and the heat moderated very considerably.

LECTURE.—Dr. McGuffey, the distinguished eclectic compiler of reading books for schools, will deliver a free lecture in the basement of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church this evening. See notice in another place.

SHELBYVILLE MALE HIGH SCHOOL We call the attention of the readers of the APPEAL to the advertisement of the above institution of learning in another column. J. W. Todd, A.M., is Principal, aided by an efficient corps of assistants.

SCIENCE HILL FEMALE ACADEMY. The eighty-seventh semi-annual session will commence September 7th. The academy is located at Shelbyville, one of the most healthy locations in Kentucky. Mrs. Julia A. Tevis is Principal. See advertisement elsewhere.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, at their recent session, having appointed a day of fasting and prayer, appropriate services will be held at the Second Presbyterian Church, on the corner of Main and Beal streets, today at 10:30 o'clock. Christian people and all interested are invited to attend.

PERSONAL.

—T. W. Johnston, Esq., Cashier of the First National Bank, of this city, left for the Northern watering places yesterday, and will return, we hope, in time for the season's business.

—H. P. Butler, Esq., agent of the old reliable Phœnix, also left via Nashville for the North yesterday, on a short pleasure trip.

MISCEGENATION.—We are informed that a certain auctioneer, with a Hollandish prefix to his name, whose establishment is on Madison street, between Main and Second, was yesterday seen by several gentlemen to sit down to the table and eat dinner with a big buck negro. They appeared to enjoy each other's society amazingly, and seemed for a time to be

"Two souls with but a single thought—
Two hearts that beat as one."

PREPARING HIS WARRIORS.—We have been informed by two colored men, in whose word we place reliance, that W. J. Smith, one of the Radical candidates for Congress, a few days ago offered to sell a carbine to one of them, cheap. Our informant states that Smith told him he had quite a large number of guns that he could choose from, and that he would sell them all very cheap.

This matter ought to be looked into, and if this fellow is up to any such devilish work he ought to be attended to immediately.

A CARD.—Mr. Smith, leader of the Memphis Brass Band, and Mr. Wind, his assistant, contracted to play for Fire Company No. 3 at our removal this morning. Yesterday evening, without giving us any notification of his intentions, or leaving any excuse for his conduct, he left the city with his band. This is to notify the public that these parties are not to be depended upon, are utterly irresponsible, and not deserving the patronage of the Memphis public.
JOHN B. SIGNAIGO,
Captain Steam Fire Engine No. 3.

POLICE ITEMS.

—A 'black bird,' just out of the cage, or in other words, a darky just out of jail, whose name we were unable to learn, was caught yesterday about noon, in the rear of Messrs. Church & Co.'s bookstore, with a bundle of clothing in his possession. On searching him it was found that he had six pair of pants, five shirts, and several other duds on his sable person. His captors peeled off the several layers of dry goods and carried him to the Adams street station.

—'Squire Griffith continued the case of L. H. Coe, Esq., charged with shooting the two Boyts with intent to kill, until this morning at 10 o'clock. Coe is under bonds of $20,000 to appear.

—Mr. Montague went to a house that he ought not to have been caught in, and got on the rampage and smashed things generally. He was fined five dollars and costs by 'Squire Griffith for his fun. Took an appeal.

—There were five arrests in the second district yesterday—all for trifling offenses, except one State case.

—Six arrests only at the first district up to midnight last night, all for trivial offenses.

FOR TEN DAYS ONLY.—W. Y. Clrode assignee of P. I. Huette & Co., bankrupts, will sell the balance of the stock at No. 195 Main street, at twenty per cent. below New York and manufacturers' cost, in lots to suit purchasers. Fancy goods, drugs, paints, oils, perfumery, etc. jy23 eod 10t

THE DRAYMEN AND CARTERS.

Great Demonstration of the Workingmen.

A Procession Two Miles and a Quarter in Length.

The public have been kept posted by reports from time to time in the daily press of the city, of the progress of the organized resistance on the part of the draymen, carters, hackmen and others interested, against the act of the Legislature, or rather the construction put by Mr. John Loague, County Clerk, upon the act of the Legislature levying a tax upon their vehicles. This resistance has been going on for some three months, and the best legal talent of the city has been consulted on both sides.

A few days ago a notice was published in the daily papers, stating that distress warrants had been issued, and were in the hands of the proper officer for enforcement, and calling upon all the draymen, carters, and others interested, in the city, to assemble on Wednesday morning and march in procession through the streets.

Accordingly about 9 o'clock yesterday morning the majority of the drivers of allsorts of vehicles in the city, assembled, with their turnouts, on the bluff, between Madison and Monroe streets, and were arranged in procession in the following order: At the head of the column was the Marshal, Thos. Ford, Esq., assisted by T. W. O'Donnell, Esq., President Draymen's Association, C. J. Hargan and Thos. Madden, Esqs., as assistants. A large band wagon, covered with canvass, came next. On the sides of this wagon was painted a design representing a donkey with an enormous bale, or load upon his back. The load was labelled "tax," with the legend, "Hard to tote." On the one side of this was inscribed, "Give the poor a chance," and on the other, "No taxation on labor." The band was followed by seventeen hacks in which were seated the Mayor, Aldermen and city officers. These were followed by about two hundred and fifty carts and drays, and some fifteen or twenty parcel express wagons, making in all about two hundred and sixty-five or seventy vehicles. Allowing only thirty-five feet space, (which is a small estimate) it would make the procession the very respectable length of two miles, nearly.

After forming, the line of march was taken up, and the procession passed down Front to Vance, through Vance to Main, up Main to Sycamore, through Sycamore to Second, down Second to Madison, through Madison to Front again, and thence to the City Hall—at which point they were addressed by Mayor Leftwich, Judge Swayne and Attorney Morgan. After the addresses, the assemblage broke up, and most of the participants returned to their daily avocations.

To form some idea of the grievances of which these sons of toil have to complain, we will simply state a fact brought to our notice by one of them yesterday. The city tax on a single dray is eleven dollars; on a double dray, seventeen. The State and county tax, in addition to that, is twenty-one dollars, making a total of thirty-two dollars. The amount of money represented by a horse and dray is a hundred and fifty dollars. So here we have a yearly tax of thirty-two dollars on one hundred and fifty! Was anything ever more iniquitous or burthensome?

The whole affair was most admirably conducted, and the order maintained was marvellous, considering the number of men engaged in the demonstration. Such an uprising as this of the bone and sinew of the people, cannot fail to have great effect in urging upon those who have the power an abatement of their grievances.

In conclusion, we are requested to insert the following:

Messrs. Editors: As there is an opinion prevailing that the Draymen's Association is a political organization, or that it can be used for that purpose, the officers of the Association want it distinctly understood that there is nothing proscriptive, partisan or political connected with it. They would, also, wish to state that they are under obligations to Messrs. J. C. Holst and others, for furnishing musical accommodations.
In behalf of the officers,
JAMES R. SCOTT, Sec.

LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

Eighth Ward Democratic Club.

There was a large concourse of the "unterrified" assembled at the mass meeting in Market Square, numbering at least 1000, last night.

The meeting was called to order, in quite a happy style, by Capt. J. L. H. Taylor, who then introduced to the meeting Col. A. M. Lewis, who, notwithstanding the shower that came up at the time, held his audience spell bound, by the elucidation he gave between the merits of Gov. Seymour, the Democratic nominee, and Gen. Grant, the Radical nominee. During his speech he was interrupted with cheers by the mass.

Mr. Ed. A. Beecher was then introduced, and spoke on the labor question of the day, showing the grinding down of the poor by the unjust taxation of the Radical party; also the difference in our financial status from 1860, under Democratic rule, and the present condition of financial matters under Radical rule.

Gen. Pike was then introduced, and received amidst the most vociferous applause, and electrified the audience by his enunciations at length of the grievances, insults and injuries they have received at the hands of Radical rule since the termination of the war, and sat down amidst thunders of applause.

It was then announced that there would be a regular meeting of the Club at their rooms to-night at 8 o'clock, on business of importance.

Loud calls were made for Col. E. M. Yerger, who came forward and spoke in his usual felicitous manner, calling on every man to come forward and do his duty to his country, now or never.

The meeting then dispersed with cheers for the defeat of Joe Brown, as Senator in the United States Congress from Georgia.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I see by yesterday's APPEAL that Prof. W. H. McGuffey, of the University of Virginia, will deliver a lecture on "Education." It is to be hoped that the intelligent part of our community will attend, for they will be highly pleased and instructed by the lecture. He is regarded by those well qualified to judge, as the first man in moral science in America. On the subject of "Education" he has no equal anywhere. The married ladies are requested to attend, as they will learn much that will aid them in the moral education of boys and girls at home. The writer has had the pleasure of listening to Dr. McGuffey upon these subjects, and knows what he says. ILLUMNUS OF U. OF VA.

THE COE-BOYT AFFRAY.

No one but one who has served in the capacity of a local reporter can form any idea of the difficulties attending the attempt to obtain a perfectly correct report of any sensational item. Each successive person applied to for information, gives a different version of the affair from the one just given by some one else. Frequently these reports are diametrically opposed to each other, and it is impossible to reconcile them with any degree of plausibility.

This fact was remarkably noticeable yesterday, in the different accounts given by the papers of the unfortunate shooting affray which occurred between L. H. Coe, Esq., and the Boyts, on Tuesday evening. The account given by the APPEAL was taken down verbatim from the mouth of Mr. Coe, in 'Squire Griffith's office, while his examination was going on and his bail being fixed. We thought that we certainly had the particulars "all right." We were told by Mr. Coe that the younger Boyt was mortally wounded and the elder slightly. An hour or so later a gentleman from the neighborhood of Elmwood called on us, and stated that young Boyt was dead; and so we wrote it up.

We are happy, however, to be able to state that up to the latest information that we were able to obtain yesterday evening, Mr. Boyt, jr., was still living, though in a very precarious situation. Mr. Boyt, sr., was not touched by a single shot, although several passed through his hat.

The Bulletin's account contains, in sixty lines, only twenty-six glaring and ridiculous errors. In the very first sentence there are four, and more or less in every subsequent sentence.

The Avalanche is nearly as bad, and makes out that to have been a cowardly and brutal murder which really was an act of self-defense. The Ledger and Post are substantially the same as the APPEAL, the latter using our very words, even to the typographical error which caused $29,000 to read $2000.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee.

Delegates from all the Clubs Present.

Pursuant to a call issued in the papers of yesterday, from Gen. Pike, President of the Central Democratic Club, the Central Executive Committee and representatives, or delegates from each of the Ward clubs, met at the APPEAL editorial rooms, at 2½ o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Present and presiding, Gen. Albert Pike, Chairman of Central Club, also the following delegates:

From the Central Club: M. D. L. Stewart, A. E. Frankland, M. Meacham.
Young Men's Independent Democratic Club: Gen. Rucker, S. S. Anderson.
Young Men's Independent Democratic Seymour Club: Thos. O. Smith.
First Ward Club: Owen Dwyer.
Second Ward Club: J. W. Page, jr.
Third Ward Club: ——.
Fourth Ward Club: T. A. Nelson.
Fifth Ward Club: Dr. Wilkerson.
Sixth Ward Club: R. J. Morgan, R. N. Sylvester.
Seventh Ward Club: John S. Garr.
Eighth Ward Club: H. Marks, G. P. Foute.
Ninth Ward Club: W. S. Adams.
Tenth Ward Club: A. J. Hays.
Overton Hotel Club: Louis Schiffner.

M. D. L. Stewart, Esq., represented Shelby County Executive Committee, and C. M. Widrig, Esq., the Memphis Democratic Paving Club.

The meeting was called to order, and the committee appointed at the last executive meeting of the Club to procure a suitable place to hold a general mass meeting, reported through Gen. Rucker in favor of taking the cotton shed of E. M. Apperson, corner of Jefferson and Fourth streets.

On motion, the report was received and adopted.

Messrs. William Carroll, Minor Merriwether and Thomas O. Smith were appointed a committee to have same fitted up for use.

R. J. Morgan, from the Sixth Ward, brought the finance question before the meeting, and after some discussion it was moved by A. E. Frankland, and seconded by G. P. Foute, that the President of the Central Club be empowered to draw on each ward and other independent clubs their pro rata sefio of whatever means may be required to pay such expenses as may be incurred by them.

Motion was carried nem. con.

M. D. L. Stewart offered a resolution looking to the same view, but it was withdrawn.

It was suggested that blanks be prepared by the Central Club for the Secretaries of various Clubs, for the purpose of obtaining complete lists of members, and such other information as may be deemed necessary by the Central Club, and required by the Constitution; the blanks to be filled by each Club and returned to the Central. The suggestion was adopted, and C. M. Widrig, Esq., appointed a committee of one on form of blanks.

An invitation was received to attend a "pole raising" at the Ford Place, Chelsea, to-morrow night.

After transacting some other business, and a free interchange of opinions, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

[COMMUNICATED.]

THE NICHOLSON PAVEMENT.—The Board of Aldermen, among whom there are men with quite as much brains, as keen a sense of justice and right, as much knowledge of law, and quite as much independence of character as Col. Tyler possesses, decided on Tuesday afternoon that they had no power to break a contract legally made, or to change the mode provided for paying for that contract, and that the Nicholson pavement, as now being laid down and paid for, should progress. Col. Tyler, who failed in his attempts to prove the law to be on his side, or to convince by other argument, came out in his paper yesterday evening in a very ill-natured attack upon Alderman McDavitt, of the Ninth ward, and the balance of the Board. If Col. Tyler still thinks that the contract is "illegal, unjust and inequitable," and the action of the Board on Tuesday a perpetuation of the same, the courts of the law are open to him, as they were before, and he has the same recourse to them now as he had on Tuesday afternoon, when he brought his legal lore to bear against the passage of the perpetuating resolution.

Perhaps he may succeed in convincing the courts—but one thing is sure, he will never convince the Memphis public that he is right by any such attacks on such public servants as Alderman McDavitt.

THE COURTS.

CHANCERY COURT—A. Alston, Clerk and Master.—The Clerk and Master will take an account to-day in the case of Robinson vs. Williams.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge. The jury in the case of Purdie vs. Southern Express Company, returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $836 16. The cases from No. 997 to 1030 were called and disposed of by trial or continuance. To-day the calendar will be taken up at case No. 1031 and proceeded with as far as possible.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter Judge.—The case of the State vs. P. D Beecher, indictment for embezzlement, will be heard to-day on motion to quash. Attorney-General Thorne and Gen. Wallace represent the State; Messrs. Henry & Diz represent the defendant.

The next case on the calendar for yesterday, The State vs. Joe King, negro, indictment for larceny, was heard and determined, the jury finding the defendant guilty, and fixing the period of imprisonment in the penitentiary at five years.

To-day the call of the cases set for yesterday will be continued, the cases of the State vs. Charles Henderson, larceny, and the State vs. Joseph Harris, larceny, standing first on the calendar for trial. On Tuesday last a nol pros was entered by the Attorney General in the case of the State vs. James Cole, negro, indictment for burglary, in consequence of the death of the prosecuting and principal witness. The defendant was discharged. Some three hours thereafter he was caught in the act of committing a larceny, and upon hearing before a Magistrate, was sent back on yesterday to occupy his old quarters in the new jail. Several other indictments remain in the Criminal Court against him for sundry offenses.

MEMPHIS, July 29, 1868.
Editors Memphis Appeal:

Now that Democratic clubs are being organized in all the wards in the city, I would most respectfully offer the following suggestion: Let every club pass a resolution, (each and every member pledging himself to carry it out in full force,) that no white or colored voter, who votes the Radical ticket, will, under any circumstances, be given employment by any member of said club. Such a resolution, rigidly enforced, will do more to carry this city for Seymour and Blair than all the speeches to be made between this and the day of election.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

LOUISVILLE, July 29.—The river is stationary, with thirty-nine inches in the canal. The weather is clear and moderately warm.

MEMPHIS, July 30.—Yesterday was clear and warm until towards evening, when a thunder shower came up, which cooled things considerably. The river falls at the rate of three to four inches per day. Arkansas has thirty-six inches to Pine Bluff, thirty inches to Little Rock, and is ankle deep at least, to Spadra, but Capt. John Adams sends freight through to Fort Smith on his boats, without delay. White River is falling, with four and a half feet to Augusta.

Arrivals.

Departures.

Marble City and Natoma.

MISCELLANEOUS.

We hope that every steamboatman in port will attend the meeting to-night at Stillman Hall. At all other ports river men have organized, and will work with a will for the white man's ticket in November, and as few men wield more influence than they do, it is to be hoped that none will fail to be present at the organization of a Boatman's Democratic Club to-night. Speeches will be made by several gentlemen.

The light draught steamer American, leaves Napoleon to-morrow, on the arrival of the Natoma, for Little Rock. Bill Nowland is master, and Ed Outlaw clerk. They will both enroll their names by deputy, as members of the club, to-night.

The Gleaner departed last evening for Cincinnati with the best trip that has left for that port for some weeks.

The Liberty is the regular U. S. mail steamer for White river on Saturday.

The handsome Natoma, Capt. Lee, leaves to-day for Napoleon, where she connects with the American for Little Rock. Billy Fields has charge of the Natoma's office, and is ably assisted by Messrs. Whitehead and Lee.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, backs out at 5 p.m. to-day for Cairo and St. Louis.

The steamer Dexter, which was sunk in a storm at South Point, above Cincinnati, on Monday, and by which several lives were lost, was not Capt. Montgomery's steamer of that name.

At the adjournment of the House, the bill relating to bridges over the Ohio, was second in order for action. It now goes over till next session, and this will prevent any further work on the Newport, Cincinnati and Paducah bridges. The bridge at Louisville can be provided for by changing the main span to 400 feet. The Chairman of the Senate Postal Committee declares he will report no bill for the construction of any bridge over the Ohio river until questions now pending are decided by Congress.

The Submarine No. 12 has arrived at Vicksburg, says the Herald, from the Pallahatchie river, where she has been wrecking several of the steamboats sunk up that stream during the late war. She brought down machinery of the Pargoud, Magenta, Magnolia, L. M. Kennett, Edward J. Gay and the Prince of Wales.

The steamboat channel at Sycamore Chain, upper Mississippi, will be entirely closed on the 2d day of August. The Davenport Gazette says the light draught sternwheelers of the Northwestern line will attempt to pass by way of the raft channel, but unless there is a rise, of which there is no present prospect, it is not at all probable they will succeed. The hindrance of this year, however, will be the means of benefitting navigation forever hereafter. There is some consolation in that.

The St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald says: The Union Pacific Road now employs in its transfer business at this point four hundred men, eighty teams, three steamboats and two barges. This force is kept constantly at work transferring iron and other materials for the Union Pacific Road—is employed upon the company's freight exclusively—local freights being handled by the M. R. Transfer Company.

The steamer Veteran will be sold at public auction, at Gallipolis, on Saturday next, by the United States marshal.

A desperate affray occurred at Warwick, R. I., on the 27th, arising out of resistance to an attempt of Sheriff Holden, of Kent county, assisted by four or five deputies, to arrest Capt. Betts, of the steamer Ella, and Edward Johnson, clerk, on the charge of running the boat on Sunday, and bringing crowds of disorderly persons to disturb the peace and quiet of the town of Warwick. During the fight the Sheriff was struck a terrible blow on the head with a heavy club and frightfully wounded. Finally the officers were overpowered, but subsequently, on the arrival of the boat at Providence, a strong force of police captured the Captain, clerk, engineer, fireman and three of the deck hands.

The Monitor Furnace, located at Pittsburg, opposite Aviland, Ky., together with its contents, was totally consumed by fire on Friday morning last. The fire originated from the bursting of a tank filled with melted ore. The furnace was owned by Messrs. John Peters & Co., and the loss is estimated at between sixty and seventy-five thousand dollars.

The lower Ohio is in a terrible condition, especially at Portland bar, at which place there is not over three feet water, and the channel so filled up with lumps that the chances of a boat going through without sticking is very doubtful.

The St. Louis Times of Sunday says: A distinguished negro "lady," of this city, a few days since went aboard of one of our local packets, and being thickly veiled and elegantly attired, procured one of the finest staterooms on the boat. She had her meals served in her room, and the clerk of the boat did not discover that he had a "nigger" in his "best room" until she was ready to go ashore. When he did ascertain the fact his French blood rose to boiling heat.

Government dredgeboats have improved the channel at Frenchman's bar so that boats now reach St. Paul without [illegible], but crossing the lower rapids [illegible] and nearly every is still troublesome, and nearly every [illegible] it is either driven steamer that strikes [illegible] bunk out of the aground or knocks a hole coffer dam.

Our Latest Improved NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO., 499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-two years that we have been manufacturing Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other first class house.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

These Pianos have a newly style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 dawly

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, July 29, 1868.

The late depression in Tennessee bonds in New York has drawn the following from the Herald of a recent date:

The pressure to sell the Tennessee bonds on Wednesday was even more marked than the day previous, and holders showed a disposition to part with them without limit as to price. It is stated on what seems to be good authority, that Gov. Brownlow will recommend to the Legislature at the extra session a general funding bill, in which the maturing bonds and interest will be funded until the income of the State from revenue is sufficient to pay the interest, the system of borrowing to meet deficiencies being obviously bad. The time of resumption upon a sound basis should not, however, be deferred a day longer than necessary, and in this connection the Governor and the Legislature would do well to try all proper methods of a conciliatory character towards the discontented element of the State before attempting to restore quiet by calling out 20,000 of the militia, as now contemplated, the costs of which, it is estimated, would be a million of dollars annually, and this, of course, would involve the postponement of interests and other payments for a much longer time than would be otherwise needful.

What does the man of sin, however, care whether the interest or bonds are ever paid, so that he can gratify his hatred towards the "discontented element" alluded to, and saddle upon the taxpayers of the State a few more of his hirelings, to suck the life-blood out of our people?

Gold advances steadily. It opened today in New York at 144¼, went up ⅛c at noon, and closed at 144¼c. Our dealers keep up a good shipping margin—buying at 142@143c; selling at 143¼@144c.

There was very little doing to-day upon the streets or at our banks. We quote the purchase of a 60 day draft on New York for $10,000 at 2½ per cent. discount; also $4000 sight on New Orleans at $2 per $1000 discount.

Bonds and stocks are nominally unchanged. We have no sales to report. City bonds are not offered, but we could learn of no one willing to buy at over 50c.

City scrip is scarce at 72@75c buying; selling at 78@80c.

County warrants dull. Buying at 52@53c; selling at 58@60c.

Police scrip dull at 70c buying; selling at 75c.

The Liverpool cotton market was steady at the opening to-day; Uplands, 9¾d; Orleans, 10¼d. At noon it was dull and declining; Uplands, 9¾d; Orleans, 10d; and at the close was heavy, with sales of 8000 bales, Uplands, 9¾d; Orleans, 9¾d. The New York market was dull and nominal at the opening: Low Middlings, 27½c; Middlings, 29c; Orleans, 29½c; Good Middlings, 31c. At 2 p.m. the market was irregular; Low Middlings, 27½c; Middlings, 29@29½c; Orleans, 29½c; Good Middlings, 31@32c. There was no further change at the close except that Middlings were quoted ⅛c higher.

This market was quiet, with sales of 2 bales shy Middlings at 28c. In our issue of Tuesday we said that we expected the first bale of new cotton to reach New Orleans this week. By our dispatches of yesterday we learn that a new bale was received in Galveston on Tuesday, and it has doubtless reached New Orleans ere this.

☞ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Dr. Albert Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolic ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this rich field of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and lore. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, clothing, furniture, seals, and all other lands degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.
